

Financial | Assistance Form

Dear Member,

Thank you for contacting CIOB Assist.

If you wish to apply for financial assistance, please read the following information and fill in the application form below. When completed, you can return your completed application form via email to assist@ciob.org.uk together with the following documents:

- A copy/image of all paperwork showing a breakdown of any State Benefits you receive
- A copy/image of photo ID such as a passport or driving licence
- Copies of your last three bank statements (this should be the main account showing income or benefits received and the main household expenditure items).
- If you have a partner and have more than one bank account, please provide statements for all relevant accounts
- Last pay slip for all members of the household who are employed (please include all income and assets for all members of the household in the application form)

Please note: We require these documents to satisfy Financial Auditors and Charity Regulators that the Fund provides financial assistance, based upon verification of an applicant's identity and circumstances.

All information provided is treated as strictly confidential and held securely, meeting General Data Protection Regulations.

Upon receipt of your completed application and supporting documentation, we will do our very best to help. If you have any questions or need assistance to complete the application please contact Emma McKay:

Please read the following guidance before continuing with your application

What CIOB Assist can help with:

- Financial assistance for members and their dependent families in circumstances of crisis such as illness, unemployment and financial hardship
- Grants to help with general household costs
- Grants to help with essential travel (to work)
- Grants to help families in hardship to buy clothing, or household items
- Grants to help members with children living at home and in hardship
- Short-term, skills-based training

What CIOB Assist cannot normally help with:

- Membership fees and medical treatment
- Legal costs
- Business-related costs
- Educational costs
- Personal or business debts
- Purchase of motor vehicles

CIOB Assist does not pay debts. Financial assistance is a way of helping members to cope in circumstances of unemployment/illness or to help in cases of sudden crisis.

The Trustees normally try to offer their help to members who are facing a short-term difficulty with finances, due for example, to a period of unemployment/illness.

CIOB Assist: Privacy notice

CIOB Assist will process your personal information to verify membership status and to communicate with you in relation to matters which stem from your contact with the CIOB Assist. This may include (although will not be limited to):

- Accessing your CIOB membership information to confirm your identity when speaking with you about the nature of your enquiry, or providing information and advice via email.
- Processing your application for financial assistance from the CIOB Assist and any consequential matters therein.
- Where you have provided explicit consent for us to do so, approach other charitable organisations for the purposes of obtaining their support/contribution where this might assist you.
- Sharing your banking information with CIOB Finance Department in relation to processing payments of approved financial assistance into your nominated bank account by way of Bank Automated Credit System (BACS).

We process this information in order to comply with our legal obligations.

Your information will be stored securely on either the CIOB's systems, or on Microsoft Office 365 and Azure platforms which adheres to the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield and EU Model Clauses, with data stored in the UK and Europe. This storage will include the use of our Customer Relationship Management (CRM) databases, file stores, finance systems and email accounts. Additional security measures that the CIOB has in place include its adherence to PCI-DSS standards, password policies and laptop encryption. The CIOB also provides all staff with training on the principles of data protection and security.

The CIOB undertakes the processing of grant payments and Trustees oversee the applications. The data that you provide us with will be stored securely and confidentially on a dedicated partition of the CIOB's Central Server and accessed solely by the Secretary of the CIOB Benevolent Fund.

We may also share your data with companies who help us provide our services, including our IT service providers who store backup data. We are satisfied that all our providers are complying with their data protection obligations.

We will keep your data securely on a dedicated and secure partition on the CIOB's Central Server and will retain a full record of your contact with the CIOB Benevolent Fund for up to 10 years in order to enable us to offer continuity of service to you, following which it will be destroyed.

Your rights

Where processing of your personal data is based on consent, you can withdraw that consent at any time. CIOB Assist recognises the importance of confidentiality in every facet of its work in advising and supporting CIOB members.

You have the following rights. You can exercise these rights at any time by contacting us at mydata@ciob.org.uk. You have the right:

- To ask us not to process your personal data for any purposes beyond those for which you have contacted CIOB Assist. We will not use your data for any reason other than for processing your request/application for assistance and administering payment/s to you by way of financial assistance
- To request from us access to personal information held about you
- To ask for the information we hold about you to be rectified if it is inaccurate or incomplete

- To ask for data to be erased provided that the personal data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, you withdraw consent (if the legal basis for processing is consent), you exercise your right to object, set out below, and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for processing, the data is unlawfully processed or the data needs to be erased to comply with a legal obligation
- To ask for the processing of that information to be restricted if the accuracy of that data is contested, the processing is unlawful, the personal data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected or you exercise your right to object (pending verification of whether there are legitimate grounds for processing)
- To ask for data portability if the processing is carried out by automated means and the legal basis for processing is consent or contract.

Should you have any issues, concerns or problems in relation to your data, or wish to notify us of data which is inaccurate, please let us know by contacting us using the contact details below.

In the event that you are not satisfied with our processing of your personal data, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the relevant supervisory authority, which is the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) in the UK, at any time. The ICO's contact details are available here:
